TOP PICK: BIG TICKET (1) will be vying for the early lead and might be hard to hold out from this box.

DANGERS: DYNA VILLA (2) will be one of the leaders and could be hard to run down if he can cross the red.

ROUGHIE: SENOR SLAMMA (8) will also be vying for the early lead and if he can cross might be hard to run down.

How the race is likely to be run:

DYNA VILLA (2) is the most likely to jump in front as he did in winning the Melbourne Cup a month ago. He will be trying to cross BIG TICKET (1) who has blistering early speed and will be attempting to hold out all challengers from heading him off early. SENOR SLAMMA (8) will display his customary early speed and will also be trying to cross to the rails where he is more comfortable. BREAKER'S TIP (3) is generally fairly well to begin and can show reasonably good early speed and should run in a straight line. The other 4 greyhounds are all a bit risky at box rise and look like settling in the second half of the field early.

In the race to the first bend BIG TICKET (1) might have too much early speed for DYNA VILLA (2) and SENOR SLAMMA (8) with BREAKER'S TIP (3) holding down 4th position at this point of the race. HELLYEAH BOLT (6) if he begins reasonably well can move up just behind the leading four greyhounds and cross down to the rails where this could enable him to produce his powerful finishing burst and a chance of over hauling the leading greyhounds. BLURRED LINES (4) might be next in line and ABOVE ALL (5) with RIDE THE RAILS (7) look like being in the trailing positions at this stage, and will be looking to gain a clear passage for their strong finishing bursts in the long Hobart straight.

At the home turn BIG TICKET (1) looks like leading the field into the run home and might have the strength to hold off all challengers, with DYNA VILLA (2) right on his hammer and attempting to dig deep for one last effort to take the lead away from BIG TICKET (1). SENOR SLAMMA (8) might still be in 3rd position with HELLYEAH BOLT (6) hugging the rails waiting for his chance to have a crack at catching the leaders. If all goes well ABOVE ALL (5) and RIDE THE RAILS (7) might receive clear galloping room so they can produce their powerful finishing bursts and if there is any bumping going on up front then these two greyhounds will have a chance of overpowering the leaders. BREAKER'S TIP (3) and BLURRED LINES (4) look like trailing the others at this point and won't be able to match the more powerful greyhounds in the run to the line.

The closing stages should see BIG TICKET (1) holding off all challengers with DYNA VILLA (2) close up trying hard. HELLYEAH BOLT (6) might be able to run past SENOR SLAMMA (8) who is going for 6 wins in a row at the Hobart circuit, with ABOVE ALL (5) and RIDE THE RAILS (7) producing eye catching finishes not far away, and then the other two greyhounds BREAKER'S TIP (3) and BLURRED LINES (4) just behind them.
